Title Let's Celebrate 27 years of LACC! Edit Content

Body Each year my family participates in the LA Cancer Challenge in honor of Papa Bernie and all those who are impacted by pancreatic cancer.

27 years ago, my sister-in-law, Allison, lost her dad to pancreatic cancer. Since then, she has passionately advocated, fundraised and made a difference. Now, she and my nephew, Bryan co-captain Team Bernie. It's a day of family, love, remembrance and making a difference.

I'm participating in the LA Cancer Challenge! The LACC helps the Hirshberg Foundation raise money to fund research and programs designed to improve patient care, offer better treatment options and, ultimately find a cure for pancreatic cancer.

Please consider contributing towards my fundraising efforts today. Or if you'd like, you can join me, in-person or virtually, for a day of costumes and fun, remembering those we have lost and celebrating those who are currently battling this disease. Together, regardless of where we are, we can make a huge difference in the battle against pancreatic cancer.
